

Funeral Wakes/Celebrations at The Blue Ball at Braunston

(Directly opposite All Saints Church, Cedar Street, Braunston-in-Rutland LE15 8QS)
From £12.50pp inc Venue, Savoury Buffet & Limitless Teas & Coffees

For many families, what happens after the funeral service is as important as the service itself. On a day that is difficult and distressing, and one on which you want to give your loved one the best tribute possible, you'll want to find somewhere appropriate to hold the post-service function. Whether you refer to this as a 'wake', or as a 'celebration' of your loved one's life, you will want to choose a venue that will welcome you and your guests in a warm and sensitive way and work hard in the background to make sure that everything is as agreed and goes smoothly. The Blue Ball is a traditional and attractive environment with owners and staff used to organising, serving and catering for a variety of different functions. We can accommodate groups of up to c100. Prices start from £12.50 per head.

Further options/arrangements are, of course, available. Eg. for drinks, desserts, canapés, music, earlier access for any photo display or use of facilities. Full settlement is by card or cash on the day, if not via Funeral Directors. If you would like to explore in more detail what we're able to offer, please contact Dominic to arrange for a private discussion. We will be able to reassure you about how we can work with you, taking your preferences into account and, if you wish, also offering some suggestions of our own to arrange exactly the sort of tribute that you feel would be fitting.
